

Pond Books by Helen Nash

Helen Nash is the renowned author of many water garden books as well as the editor of Pond and Garden Magazine.

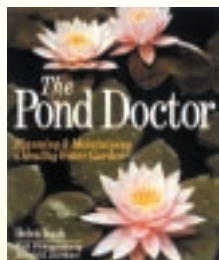

Water Gardening Basics

(soft cover)
This book explains how to plan, construct and maintain a healthy water garden. 128 pages
16848-IBC

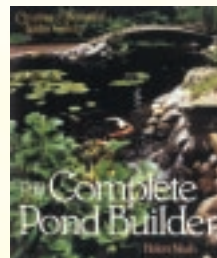

The Pond Doctor

(soft cover) An excellent publication to plan and maintain a healthy water garden. This is a "must have" book for the novice as well as the enthusiast. 160 pages
16823-IBC

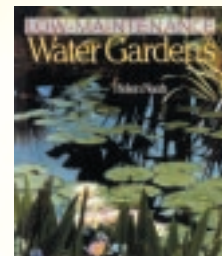

The Complete Pond Builder

(soft cover) Everything you need to know about creating a water garden paradise. 144 pages
16831-IBC

Low Maintenance Water Gardens

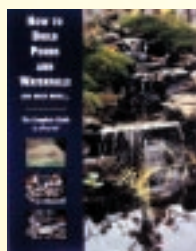

(hard cover) Simple plans show how to design a water garden for easy maintenance. 127 pages
16859-IBC

Garden Pond Books

How to Build Ponds and Waterfalls

(soft cover) by Jeff Reid. Simple, straight-forward text, beautiful color photography, and informative illustrations. 160 Pages
16010-IBC

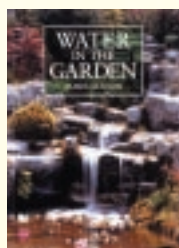

Pond Owner's Problem Solver

(hard cover) by John Dawes. Practical and expert advice on designing, stocking and managing ponds. 207 pages
16034-IBC

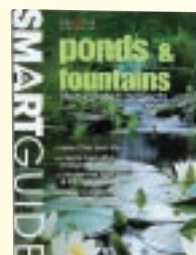

Water in the Garden

(hard cover) by James Allison. Covers all aspects of water gardening. Beautifully illustrated with over 200 color photographs and drawings. 160 pages
16051-IBC

Ponds & Fountains

by Creative Homeowner. Select the best site for your pond. Filter systems & pumps. All the basic information for the new Pondowner. 80 pages.
11106-IBC

Your New Garden Pond

by Anmarie Barrie. This book is designed specially for use by beginners, people who have never set up a pond before. 65 pgs.
25331-IBC

Books by Tetrapress & Ortho

These exquisitely designed and photographed volumes contain clearly stated professional advice on how to build and maintain a garden pond. Tetrapond is dedicated to educating the public on the joys of water gardening and Koi keeping.

Creating Japanese Gardens

Uses materials and plants readily available in North America. 112 pages
5889-IBC

Ortho's All About Garden Pools and Fountains

How to site, install, maintain and plant around waterfalls, ponds, fountains and streams. 96 pages
5831-IBC

Ortho's All About Water Gardening

Describes how to design and build water gardens and maintain them year-round. How to select, care for, and propagate pond plants and creatures, including goldfish, koi, and tropical and native fish. 96 pages
5862-IBC

